GOVERNMENT SPENT COUNTRY'S INCOME

Also Proceeds of Foreign Loans on Railroads.

SAID PROLETARIAT MANIFESTO

Document Declared Bankruptcy of the [illegible] and Ordered Workmen to [illegible] Pay Taxes and to Insist on [illegible] Wages in Gold.

[illegible]burg, Friday Dec. 15.—[illegible]ydikuhnen, East Prussia, [illegible] proletariat organizations [illegible]he "invisible government," [illegible]omb shell into the camp of [illegible] government during the [illegible]g a manifesto, following [illegible]a regular imperial docu- [illegible]g the bankruptcy of the [illegible]ing the proletariat army [illegible] refuse to pay taxes of [illegible]n, to insist on the pay- [illegible] in gold or silver, and to [illegible] their deposits from the [illegible] in gold.

[illegible]anifesto is a terrible indict- [illegible] the manner in which the bu- [illegible]y has brought the country to [illegible] ruin, asserting that the gov- [illegible]rnment has squandered not only the country's income, but the proceeds of the foreign loans on railroads, the army and the fleet, leaving the people without schools or roads, it is declared there is no money to feed the soldiers, and [illegible]erywhere there are insurrections of [illegible]e beggar, and starved troops and sa[illegible]rs.

The manifesto even charges that the government is using the deposits in the government savings banks to speculate on the bourse and with covering up its chronic deficits in the interest on the immense debt by the proceeds of the foreign loans which are at last exhausted.

The rich, it is fruther declared, have already taken warning and are converting their property into securities and they are sending these abroad. The only salvation for the country, according to the manifesto, is the overthrow of the autocracy by a constituent assembly and "the sooner the government falls, the better. Therefore, the last source of existence of the old regime—its financial revenue—must be stopped."

The document is signed by the members of the workmen's council, the committee of the Pan-Russian Union, and the central committees of the Social Democrats, Social-Revolutionists and Socialists of Poland.

This great step of the revolutionaries which throws down the gauge of battle to the government was prepared with such secrecy that the authorities were taken off their guard and did not even attempt to prevent its publication in the newspapers.

The revolutionary leaders expect it will be followed by reprisals and arrests, but all this has been foreseen. The leaders laid their plans deeply, before issuing the manifesto. New committees of various organizations have been elected in the third and fourth degree. If one set of committees is put behind the bars, another will take its place and carry on the work.

The League of Leagues was not asked to join in the manifesto, being regarded with some jealousy by the proletariat organizations, which claim to be bearing the brunt of the revolution and to be entitled to the fruits thereof.

The proleariat leaders claim to have absolute knowledge that the government has just issued $125,000,000 in paper money. Under the provisions of the press law the editor of every paper which printed the manifesto has rendered himself liable to eight months in prison and $1,500 fine. Now must come to the test the government's power.

It develops that among the papers of M. Krukieff, the president of the executive committee of the workmen's council, seized at the time of his arrest were documents which furnish evidence of a well-planned conspiracy to seize and carry off Premier Witte.

Orders to Remove Bodies.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 18.—Orders were received here yesterday from the war department to remove the 260 bodies interred at Ft. Sumner National cemetery, to the National cemeery in this city, and bids were asked for doing this work. Fort Sumner was a military post from 1865 to 1870, and the 260 graves in its cemetery are not only those of soldiers but also of settlers killed by Indians.

ASKS MERCY FOR BOYS.

Judge of Atlanta's City Court Thinks Rawlings Boys Should Not Hang.

Atlanta, Dec. 18.—Judge Andy E. Calhoun, of the city court of Atlanta, appeared before the prison commission and urged commutation of sentence to life imprisonment for the two Rawlings boys, Milton and Jesse, who are sentenced to be hanged in January along with their father for the murder of the Carter children in Lowndes county.

This is the second request of the kind which has come to the commission, though the matter has not yet been presented in formal shape.

Judge Calhoun stated that he did not know the Rawlings family or any one of them, nor was he interested in the case beyond reading the newspaper accounts of it. From these, however, he said he was convinced that the two boys who are sentenced to be hanged were simply the tools of their father, who bent them to his will, and he felt that while the old man should be hanged for the crime, under the circumstances the boys should be let off with life imprisonment.

Daizell Fitzgerald, a negro, who killed a fellow servant at the Fairfax hotel, was convicted of voluntary manslaughter and sentenced to serve four years in the penitentiary.

At Time He Was Arrested Negro Was Being Pursued by Three Hundred Negroes Bent on Taking His Life. Had Sabbed Negro Girl.

Atlanta, Dec 18.—Charged with attempting assault on a young negro girl, Will Holmes, a negro, narrowly escaped being killed by members of his own race. The prompt arrival of policemen on the beat, and of the arrival of the patrol wagon, was all that saved him from being either killed by pistol shot or lynched.

At the time that he was arrested by Policemen Cooper and Belcher he was being pusued by a mob of some 300 negroes, bent on taking his life.

Three or four shots had been fired at him, and he had been smashed over the head with a stick in the hands of one of his pursuers.

About 6 o'clock Friday night an 11-year-old negro girl, Ida Belle Jones, was coming away from a grocery store, where she had gone to make a purchase.

On her way home she was seized by a negro man, believed to be Holmes. In the scuffle she was stabbed in the back of the neck.

RUSSIANS HAD U. S. ARTILLERY.

Japanese Captured Piece In Stronghold of Port Arthur.

San Francisco, Dec. 18.—The army transport Thomas, just arrived from the Orient, brought home a piece of artillery which originally belonged to the United States, but which was found in the possession of the Russian forces at Port Arthur, when the Japanese captured that stronghold.

The government of Japan when they discovered the ownership of the gun, turned it over to United States Minister Griscom, who shipped it from Nagasaki consigned to the arsenal at Benicia. The field piece is stamped inside the barrel "Watervliet arsenal, 1898, 829 pounds, No. 209, J. W. J."

The military authorities here are now wondering how this particular gun got into the hands of the Russians.

McCall, president of the New York Life Insurance company, who came to Paris for the purpose of having Andrew Hamilton, the former confidential legislative representative of the insurance company at Albany, accompany him back to New York, sailed alone today on the steamboy La Touraine from Havre. Mr. McCall took with him Mr. Hamilton's report concerning his connection with the insurance company's affairs.

RAN GAUNTLET OF MOB.

South Carolina Deputies Rush Prisoner To Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 18—After running the gauntlet of an armed and determined mob, Deputies Reuben Jacobs and E. E. Merris, of Barnwell, S. C., reached Savannah from Barnwell county with John Sims, a negro prisoner, who had been shot through the body. Sims was being carried to Augusta and then to Columbia.

The negro was arrested at Blackville for turkey stealing, and for throwing bricks at Mrs. Bussee. When Mrs Bussee discovered Sims trying to catch the turkeys he commenced cursing her and throwing stones at her, and she sought safety by crawling under a house.

Arthur Dewett overtook the negro and, when the latter showed fight, Dewett shot him through the right side. The negro's wound was dressed and he was placed aboard the train for Barnwell. An excited mob was in waiting and Sheriff Creech and several deputies were having trouble in keeping them back.

As the train slowed up Sheriff Creech sprung aboard and held the mob at bay until the doors to the car in which the prisoner was contained were locked. Inside the car were several deputies with double-barreled shotguns.

The throttle was opened wide and the train sped out of Barnwell with several members of the mob still cling to the platform.

CAUGHT BY LANDSLIDE.

Believed to Have Been Caused by the Recent Heavy Rains.

Cincinnati, Dec. 18.—General Manager Garrett, of the Queen and Crescent says that the delay to the traffic at Tunnel No. 27, reported last night from Chattanooga was not the result of a cave-in of the tunnel, but a landslide, which caught train No. 4 just after it had passed through the tunnel on its way north.

The drawbridge between the two engines broken but the train was safely extricated.

The landslide is believed to have been causel by the recent heavy rains.

The tunnel is said to be intact, and the tracks have been entirely cleared of obstruction.

ABRAHAM HUMMEL BITTERLY ARRAIGNED

Rand Says Morse Dodge Scandal Was Conspiracy.

GOODS DELIVERED AND PAID FOR

Project Was Bold and Aimed at Laws of State, and Its Object of Attack Was Institution of Marriage and Administration of Justice.

New York, Dec. 18.—The prosecution opened its case in the trial of Abraham H. Hummel, the lawyer charged with conspiracy in the celebrated Dodge-Morse divorce case today. Assistant District Attorney Rand, in opening the case, said:

"In this case the act of conspiracy as described in law was committed and the goods were delivered and paid for.

"This particular project was a very bold one. It was aimed not only at the law of the state, but its project of attack was nothing less than the institution of marriage and administration of justice.

"Captain James S. Morse, of the city of Boston, a ship owner, had heard Mrs. Morse was a divorced woman.

ADE HUMMEL.

He started to work to see if he could not break up the marriage. He went to the office of Hummel, this defendant, and a few days later Hummel telegraphed to Morse in Boston that he had found such clear traces of fraud in the proceedings that he would take the matter up if Mr. Morse would pay him $15,000. Captain Morse paid Hummel the $15,000 to upset his nephew's marriage.

"In January, 1904, the grand jury presented a charge of perjury against Dodge. On the same day Dodge was at the St. Charles hotel, New Orleans, on his way to Mexico. He knew about it before the district attorney. Why should Hummel want to get Dodge across the border? But Dodge was pulled off the train in Texas. Hummel telephoned to Captain Morse:

"'They have got our man; send us money.'

"There was a constant demand by Hummel from Captain Morse and not less than $50,000 was paid by him."

The first witness was Abraham H. Kaffenbergh, a member of Hummel's law firm. He was asked whether he had employed counsel in Texas to prevent the extradition of Charles F. Dodge and also whether under Hummel's instruction he attempted to keep Dodge in a perpetual state of intoxication. But to this and to other questions he replied:

"I decline to answer on the ground that it might degrade and incriminate me."

He was excused after a short questioning.

Moore, of Hopewell public school, in the Fairview section ow Greenville county, by one of his pupils, William Martin, aged 16. COL. CHUBB RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON

Is Well Pleased Over Result of Appointments for Florida.

THE ORGANIZATION VICTORIOUS

President Roosevelt Received the Florida Republicans in Amiable Manner, and Was in Conference for Several Hours—Florida in Good Hands.

Hon. Henry S. Chubb, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee and receiver of public monies of the United States land office, who went with a committee composed of Hon. J. N. Coombs of Apalachicola, member of the National Committee from Florida, M. B. Macfarlane, former Republican candidate for Governor, and Geo. W. Bean of Tampa, John M. Cheney of Orlando, candidate for Congress from the Second district during the last campaign, George W. Allen, collector of customs for the port of Key West, and others, to confer with the President in reference to Federal appointments in Florida, has returned to the city feeling well over the success of the delegation, as he should feel.

"President Roosevelt is a great man," remarked Col. Chubb, as he sat in an easy chair in his private office and addressed The Sun representative, who had sought him to ascertain "the condition of things" with the organization in Florida. "He has a long memory, and we were all delighted with the reception we received at his hands.

"As regards the outcome of our mission and the success of the Republican organization in this State, that is best told in the press of the country, when the press enumerated the appointments which had been made in Florida. It goes without saying that we are very much gratified at the President's confidence, integrity and good records made by all Federal officers within the borders of this great State. Personally I am greatly pleased at my reappointment, as it will enable me to continue my most pleasant relations with my friends in Gainesville, the courtesy and kindness of whom I shall always hold in tender remembrance, and I shall always appreciate their endorsement of my reappointment.

"My official life has been pleasant, owing to the congeniality and generosity of my colleague, Hon. W. G. Robinson, the reappointment of whom as register of the United States land office gave me the greatest satisfaction."

Compliments Our Delegation.

"How about the work of the Florida delegation," ventured the reporter.

"Our State can feel proud of its delegation," replied this distinguished Republican leader, in a tone ringing with earnestness and with a tinge of enthusiasm. "Senator Taliaferro is one of the most influential Senators from the South and is so recognized. His ability to secure legislation in the interest of his constituents is commented upon by leading members of the Senate. He stands high among the great men of that body as a worker and legislator.

Mallory is a Worker.

"Senator Mallory is an eloquent and impressive debator and has delivered some of the ablest speeches heard in the Senate. He is a profound thinker, a gifted statesman and we are fortunate in having such honest, upright men to represent us in the Senate.

Sparkman Holds His Own.

"Florida's delegation in the House is also strong. Congressman Sparkman is a man of great force and strength of character and an indefatigable worker and a powerful factor in the House. He has membership on the most important committees and is consulted by the most members of Congress. A Republican Congressman of National reputation told me that Sparkman was one of the strongest members of the House from the South.

Frank Clark's Progress.

"Our own honored Frank Clark was as courteous and amiable as ever. High honors have not produced any affectation in his intercourse, and he is rapidly grasping the detail work of the House, and working faithfully for his constituents. He has already introduced a bill in the House to amend the internal revenue laws, prohibiting the issuance of United States licenses permitting the sale of liquors in counties that have voted against the sale of same. This, if adopted, will eradicate to a large extent the 'blind tiger' evil, so much abhorred and detested by our people who have voted dry. Congressman Clark will also introduce a bill at once for an additional appropriation of $50,000 for the public building at Gainesville. Mark my word, Frank Clark will make a record for himself of which his district and the State will feel proud."

Rev. Mr. Cameron of Georgia, who has been conducting a series of meetings at Jennings Lake, has gone with a party to Tiger Island on the Suwannee river for a few days' hunt. This will, no doubt, be a novel experience for the Reverend gentleman.

S. A. Swearingen of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Kate Cochran of Thomasville, Ga., have arrived in the city and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Swearingen, Roper avenue, for the next few days. The former, who holds a position with the Treasury Department at Washington, is a brother of Mr. Swearingen and has not seen him in twelve years.

As we are overstocked with mules we offer for sale eight good turpentine mules and two four-horse wagons and harness in good condition cheap for cash. Four mules and one four-horse wagon and harness $800, four mules and one four-horse wagon and harness $400. This is only three-fourths' their value. Can be seen at Lennon, Fla. Smith Bros., Lennon, Fla.

Among the visitors to this city is F. A. Smith of Washington, representative of The Washington Post, one of the oldest and most widely known papers in the country. Mr. Smith is introducing for The Post a work in two volumes entitled "Messages and Papers of the Confederacy," and expects to remain here for two or three days. He is registered at the Brown House.

D. V. Maines of Monteocha, Waterman Johnson of Micanopy, Chas. Hodge of Alachua, F. H. Clyatt of Clyatt Station and S. L. Turner of Lake View were visitors to Gainesville yesterday. Mr. Hodge, who, with the exception of Brother Setzer of The High Springs Hornet, is the most original man in the county, has a new "fad" in pictures and with a simple little apparatus produces a likeness of one's future husband or wife, as the case may be. Satisfaction is guaranteed or your money back when you get married.

The Florida Republicans who were in Washington with Hon. H. S. Chubb, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, showed their appreciation of his valued services by presenting him with a magnificent gold-headed walking cane, properly engraved, which Colonel Chubb brought back with him. The cane is one of the handsomest ever seen here and it goes without saying is appreciated, notwithstanding the fact that the distinguished gentleman has yet not reached that advanced age and condition where the same is necessary.

Meeting of Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners met in adjourned session Monday for the purpose of clearing up some unfinished business, comprising bills of the fall session of the circuit court. The Board adjourned after a session of about three hours.

W. F. Baily, P. O. True, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her alright. I have also used it for old sores, frostbites and skin eruptions. It does the work." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Keep Your Head Clear

And your stomach free from indigestion if you would be happy with your family and your fellow-man.

The surest thing on earth to get a man's system "out of whack" is heavy, soggy bread, which is caused by several reasons: First, the material may not be good; second, the cooking may be poor. The best flour in the world will make the heaviest bread if improperly mixed, or cooked. WE USE THE BEST FLOUR and our "long suit" is knowing how to mix and bake it. Our bread does not cost any more than home-made, and in many instances it is so much more palatable.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

KILLED A BIG BEAR.

Bruin Ran Down by Train Near Leesburg and Met Instant Death.

In these modern times it seems like a fairy tale to state that bears are so numerous in some sections of the State that, like cattle, they congregate upon railroad tracks and sometimes meet death for their indiscretion.

But this is a fact, and once in a while we hear of some immense bear killed in that manner. The latest occurred near Leesburg, a few miles to the south of that pretty, bustling little town. Train No. 78 of the Atlantic Coast Line was steaming rapidly northward, when the engineer noticed, as he rounded a sharp curve, a large bear a short distance ahead, standing between the rails. Bruin was facing the monster engine, but did not appear to realize that it was "loaded," for he made no attempt to move. The pilot moved him, however, hurling him about twenty-five feet to one side of the track.

The train was stopped, the animal secured and brought to this city, where it was presented to the division officers of the road.

And this accounts for so many of "the boys" feasting on bear meat for dinner recently.

I tried many remedies without relief until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough and saved me from consumption." Colson & Blanding, the real estate dealers and abstractors, have made two important sales of city property recently. The first was the sale of a desirable building lot on Palmetto avenue, between Alachua avenue and Odd Fellow street, East Gainesville, to A. M. Cushman.

A short time afterward this firm sold to W. E. Baker, on Alachua avenue, East Gainesville, a fine building lot, upon which it is understood he will erect a handsome residence at once.

A Little Exaggerated.

The witty George Canning, illustrating the Hibernian tendency when excited to hurry beyond the limits of good sense, tells this anecdote:

An Irish divine, preaching against the vice of swearing and denouncing its prevalence in a certain town, said in the height of declamation:

"Even the little children that can neither speak nor walk run about the streets blaspheming."

Her Coarse Laugh.

George—You are not calling on Miss Rosebud any more, eh? Jack—No; I got disgusted. She has such a coarse laugh. George—I never noticed that. Jack—You would if you'd been within hearing when I proposed to her.—New York Weekly.

A Recommendation.

Prospective Guest—Do you set a good table here? Hotel Clerk—Well, rather. Why, folks come here perfectly healthy and go away with the gout and dyspepsia.—Life.

"I dream my stories," said Hicks, the author.

"How you must dread going to bed!" exclaimed Cynicus.

If Germany is successful in her efforts toward reciprocal trade relations with the other countries of Europe, our own country may be compelled to do something in that line or let the other countries sell the goods. The idea of a protective tariff is non-sense.

While our people are deploring their fate with the mercury down to 52 degrees above zero, the people of the National Capital and in many parts of Virginia are trying to move about amidst the sleet and snow that makes it almost impossible to walk about the streets.

As an inducement for people to buy diamonds for Christmas gifts, a Jacksonville jeweler predicts a steady rise in the price for some time to come. If we should buy a few hundred the bears might cause a decline in the market which would send us to the wall. Plate glass will do for a front yet awhile.

The Jacksonville daily papers were both out with Christmas editions on Saturday and Sunday. The Metropolis of Saturday contained 64 pages, while The Times-Union of Sunday had the same number of pages, a fine feature being the complete Associated Press dispatches, which makes it the best daily in Florida.

CHRISTMAS CHEER.

In looking about the city it would appear to an observer that there is no reason why all should not have a portion of the Christmas cheer that is to be seen on every hand. The stores of the city are filled with an abundance of everything calculated to make both old and young happy and there seems to be no end of the toys, novelties and dolls that cause the children to be merry on this day of rejoicing in every Christian land.

Surely there is no need of any in the city of Gainesville being anything but glad, except perhaps a few who are watching beside the sick-bed of loved ones, whose condition may compel them to manifest a feeling of sadness on the natal day of Him to come to the world to bring glad tidings to all.

Aside from a few who are thus deprived of the full enjoyment of the season, our people as a whole have no reason to be aught but full of joy for the bounteous blessings so richly bestowed. The year that is fast dying has been one of unusual prosperity to our city, no discouragements in the way of adverse business, disease or failure of crops having been present to retard our advancement.

In the hustle of every-day business the mechanic and artisan have been in demand as well as the man of business, and there is no reason why the laborer and the tradesman, who have been spared their health, should not have something laid by to aid them in the enjoyment of the annual season of holiday happiness.

And the prospects for the future are as bright as one could wish for in nearly all branches of industry, as the people who are here from the less favored localities in search of a home in the land of peace and plenty are among us at the present time, while those who are afflicted come here and are pleased with the surroundings, and carry the glad tidings to their friends in distant parts of our common country, who come here at the next Christmas tide to enjoy the beauties of our delightful Southland, making more accommodations necessary each year, and adding to our population, thus necessitating more homes and more of the necessaries of life, which necessarily brings more activity to our industrial resources for existence.

With such conditions we enter upon the season of Christmas tide, with untold blessings from the Giver of All Good, with health and happiness on every hand, and a promise of much good in the future, is there any reason why the people of Gainesville should not celebrate the glad event to its fullest?

COTTON CONVENTION.

President Harvie Jordan of the Southern Cotton Association in a message sent out to the various State presidents urges the importance of selecting good business men from among the farmers, merchants and bankers who are to be appointed as delegates to the New Orleans Convention, January 11th, 12th and 13th. The date selected for the county meetings to appoint such delegates is Saturday, December 23rd. Mr. Jordan says:

"As this is to be a business meeting let us eliminate as far as possible any political features. We are working for results and the success which has attended the efforts of the Southern Cotton Association in this respect is largely due to the fact that the farmers, merchants and bankers who are members have gone about the affairs of the association in a thorough, business-like manner.

"Reports from the county meetings held generally throughout the cotton belt last Saturday indicate that the work of organization of the association is going forward with great enthusiasm and determination and the delegates will come to New Orleans well prepared to make more permanent the good work."

Anxiety in reference to the rapid destruction of forests going on in the country is somewhat relieved by the fact that government geologists have just figured out that one county alone in Oklahoma (Greer county) has 53,000,000,000 tons of cement in the gypsum deposits within her boundaries. That field, which is so far untouched, can supply building material which is equal to millions of acres of forests. There are plenty of other cement deposits also.

Every day there is a carload or more of public documents sent through the mails that not only cost large sums of money to print, but no small sum to send it through the mails. It is utterly worthless to half the people to whom it is sent, and as many people who receive these documents have no place to store them and don't feel disposed to encumber their premises with storehouses built for such a purpose, simply throw it in the fire to get it out of the way.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Chief Stone, a 16-year-old young man, while out hunting the other day ran across a wildcat which his dogs treed. It went up a large pine, out on a limb about 75 feet above the ground. The boy fired four loads of bird shot in the animal before he brought it down, a risk a more experienced hunter would hardly have taken. The cat when dead weighed about 18 pounds.—Green Cove Spring.

A Jacksonville horse ran away on Saturday and dashing down the sidewalk knocked George Stevens down and broke his collar bone, bruised a woman slightly, knocked down three negroes, tore up posts and other things along the street and there is no telling what would have happened if he hadn't run up against a brick store with such force that the proprietor ran out and shouted "earthquake" so loud that he made the horse stop and laugh, when he was caught by Nick Lau.

ECZEMA ON LITTLE GIRL

Sleepless Nights for Mother and Awful Suffering of Child.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Had Given up All Hope of Ever Making Any Cure.

Mrs. I. B. Jones, Addington, Ind. T., writes: "My little girl had been suffering for two years from eczema, and during that time I could not get a night's sleep, as her ailment was very severe. I had tried so many remedies and spent so much money, deriving no benefit, I had given up all hope of making any cure. As a last resort I was persuaded to try Cuticura, and to my great delight a marked change was manifested from the first application. I gave the child a bath with Cuticura Soap, using a soft piece of muslin cloth. This I did twice a day, each time following with Cuticura Ointment, and at the same time gave the Resolvent, according to directions. One box of Ointment and two bottles of the Resolvent, together with the Soap, effected a permanent cure. I submit this for publication, hoping it will assist other sufferers in curing themselves."

COMPLETE TREATMENT

Consisting of Cuticura Soap Ointment and Pills.

The first step in the treatment of chronic Eczema is to remove the scales and crusts and soften the skin, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap. Dry carefully and apply Cuticura Ointment, lightly at first, and where advisable spread it on pieces of soft cloth and bind in place. Take the Resolvent Pills, or liquid, in medium doses. Do not use cold water in bathing, and avoid cold, raw winds.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60), Ointment, 50c., Soap, 25c. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Sole Props. Send for "How to Cure Eczema."

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contrated severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all it miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Egleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." These tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by all druggists.

Failed.

All efforts have failed to find a better remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles than Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. J. N. Patterson, Nashua, Iowa, writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." J. W. McCollum & Company.

MONARCHS FOR A DAY

GERMAN PEASANTS WHO PLAY ROYAL ROLES ONCE A YEAR.

The Picturesque Trachtenfest of the Plattdeutsch That Is Held Annually at Scheessel, In Prussia—Costumes and State Coaches.

Royalty in Europe is not confined to a few crowned heads. It is also to be seen in the humblest of subjects. In the coarse clad, coarse fed, ignorant, downtrodden peasant there smolders a spark of the imperial fire which at times bursts forth into flame. Yet these upheavals of his nature are not revolutionary. He does not then take up arms against the government. His insurrection is entirely peaceful. He simply dons a suit of fine clothes and struts about like some peacock just let out of a coop. And so throughout Europe there have been peasant festivals from time immemorial when for one day in the year the laborer believes himself a king.

An illustration of this regal side of the European peasant, and one that has become especially magnificent, is the Trachtenfest of the Plattdeutsch, or Low Germans. Each year it is held at Scheessel, Prussia, and there the natives of the country round congregate as if it were the court of some potentate. They come dressed in the gala apparel which is peculiar to their own communities, and some of them are attired in even greater splendor than may be seen at the palaces of certain all the year monarchs. Nearly all the costumes are family heirlooms, which have been handed down from parent to child, and for the reason that they are enriched each year by a little more velvet or gold lace they represent the wealth of long generations. Some are worth more than the houses in which their owners live.

Just as their hats and coats have descended from ancestral sources, so the songs and dances and all the other features of this peasant pageant hail from times remote. Scheessel is halfway between Hamburg and Bremen, and the American traveler who lands at either port can thus pass from modern to mediaeval times by only an hour's railroad ride. Should he arrive early on the morning of the fete day he would first see the triumphal procession. At the sound of a trumpet these one day "kings," with their "queens" and "princesses," parade the main street in a long procession, each community characterized by a different costume and each believing that its own is the most beautiful.

There is little attempt to adorn the "carriages of state," for their occupants feel that nothing else should detract from their own personal glory. They believe that their costumes are the chief attraction, and so it matters not that they ride in cumbrous farm wagons, used on other days for hay or cabbages and touched up for the occasion with a little paint or some loops of bunting. The dignity of the paraders, however, suffers not a little from the simplicity of their equipages, for, as the wagons have no springs, the "kings," "queens" and "princesses" frequently receive such jolts that they have to clutch one another to save themselves from falling.

Almost every wagon brings to view a different variety of dress. The women of Scheessel, for instance, are attired in great white aprons, the servile aspect of which contrasts rather ludicrously with their headdress of artificial flowers and fruits, built up in the shape of a tiara. Around their waists are tied gorgeous ribbons of variegated colors. In another wagon girls from Vierland wear hats which look much like those their American sisters don when they are graduated at college. They are not quite so flat, however, as mortarboards and are more nearly like inverted soup plates. Their outlandish appearance is still further increased by two huge bows which protrude on either side from their back hair and which appear at a little distance like two fans of a windmill. In other wagons ride madchen from Elsdorf and Selfingen, Leer, Gottrum and Apensee and, most gorgeous of all, the Buckerburger lasses.

Some of the young women of Buckerburg deck themselves out in dresses estimated to cost $250 apiece. So fantastic is the medley of colors to be seen in a single costume, so extravagant is the use of laces, braids, fluffs, fringes, flowers and jewels, that it looks more like the sacred robe of some oriental priest than the bridal dress of a simple peasant girl, for it happens that a great many Plattdeutsch maidens postpone their weddings until just after the Trachtenfest, so that they may appear then in the costumes they are to be married in. Next year the dress will be worn by some other bride, and so on down the years.

A costume peculiarly grotesque is worn by the Stadthagen women, their headgear much resembling that worn by the "great tormentor" at the initiations of a certain American secret society. On their breasts they wear a shield the size of a saucer, and the edges of their aprons are elaborate with needlework, over which hundreds of hands have toiled. Yet not all of the paraders are gay. Some of the Scheessel women wear the simple garb of communicants, with white yokes and white caps, and from Sitten comes a delegation which walks behind a wagon with heads bowed and in weeds of mourning.

In comparison with the women the men appear extremely plain. Their ostentation is limited chiefly to buttons, with which some of them fairly cover themselves and which vary in size from a pea to a butter dish. All the "kings" appear peculiarly stiff and awkward in their fine clothes, and even those who are wont to wear their costumes now and then on a Sunday instead of stowing them away for the rest of the year seem to feel uncomfortable restraint.

The music heard when the procession has ended and the various couples are "treading the mazes of the dance" would make one think that these people are akin to the Scotch highlanders. One dance is especially like the highland fling, and as a matter of fact it is called the "Klapper Scottish." The celebration generally ends with tableaux showing the peasants in the dairy, the harvest field or among the beehives.

Of recent years the Trachtenfest has grown in importance, drawing peasants to Scheessel each year from a much greater area and a far greater number of visitors also. The emperor, too, has taken a special interest in the festival, and not only does the empress offer each year a prize to the community which revives most faithfully the customs, songs and dances of its ancestors, but the imperial example has led many wealthy families of the Plattdeutsch country to lend their patronage in various ways.—New York Tribune.
